Improving community mental health services for people suffering from severe mental disorders in China

Mental Health System Reform in China-686 Programme

People with severe mental disorders covered by the Community Mental Health Service

Registered rate of people with severe mental disorders by 2015 (‰)
(data from the National Information System for Psychosis)

54 cities included in the 686 projects in 2005
Another 106 cities included in the 686 projects at the end of 2010

Huge increase in psychiatrists participating in community mental health services nationwide over 10 years

86.2% of psychiatrists are now participating in community services